ACT

To provide for measures to prevent and combat terrorist and related activities; to provide for an offence of terrorism and other offences associated or connected with terrorist activities; to provide for Convention offences; to give effect to international instruments dealing with terrorist and related activities; to provide for a mechanism to comply with United Nations Security Council Resolutions, which are binding on member States, in respect of terrorist and related activities; to provide for measures to prevent and combat the financing of terrorist and related activities; to provide for investigative measures in respect of terrorist and related activities; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the Republic of South Africa is a constitutional democracy where fundamental human rights, such as the right to life and free political activity, are constitutionally enshrined.

AND WHEREAS terrorist and related activities, in whichever form, are intended to achieve political and other aims in a violent or otherwise unconstitutional manner, and thereby undermine democratic rights and values and the Constitution.

AND WHEREAS terrorist and related activities are an international problem, which can only be effectively addressed by means of international co-operation;

AND WHEREAS the Government of the Republic of South Africa has committed itself in international fora such as the United Nations, the African Union and the Non- Aligned Movement, to the prevention and combating of terrorist and related activities;

AND WHEREAS the United Nations Security Council Resolution 1373/2001, which is binding on all Member States of the United Nations, as well as the Convention for the Prevention and Combating of Terrorism, adopted by the Organisation of African Unity, requires Member States to become Party to instruments, dealing with terrorist and related activities, as soon as possible;

AND WHEREAS the Republic of South Africa has already become Party to the following instruments of the United Nations:

- (a) The Convention on Offences and Certain Other Acts Committed on Board Aircraft, signed at Tokyo on 14 September 1963. The Republic became a Party thereto, by accession on 26 May 1972;
- (b) the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft, signed at The Hague on 16 December 1970. The Republic became a Party thereto by ratification on 30 May 1972;
- (c) the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Civil Aviation, concluded at Montreal on 23 September 1971. The Republic became a Party thereto by ratification on 30 May 1972;
- (d) the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes against Internationally Protected Persons including Diplomatic Agents, adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 14 December 1973. The Republic became a Party thereto by accession on 23 September 2003;
- (e) the International Convention Against the Taking of Hostages, adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 17 December 1979. The Republic became a Party thereto by accession on 23 September 2003;

- (f) the Protocol for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts of Violence at Airports Serving International Civil Aviation, adopted at Montreal on 24 February 1988. The Republic became a Party thereto by accession on 21 September 1998;
- (g) the Convention on the Marking of Plastic Explosives for the Purpose of Detection, signed at Montreal on 1 March 1991. The Republic became a Party thereto by accession on 1 December 1999;
- (h) the International Convention for the Suppression of Terrorist Bombings, adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 15 December 1997. The Republic became a Party thereto by ratification on 1 May 2003;
- (i) the International Convention on the Suppression of the Financing of Terrorism, adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on 9 December 1999. The Republic became a Party thereto by ratification on 1 May 2003;
- (j) the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Maritime Navigation (SUA Convention), adopted at Rome on 10 March 1988. The Republic became a Party thereto by accession on 8 July 2005;
- (k) the Protocol for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Fixed Platforms located on the Continental Shelf (SUA Protocol), adopted at Rome on 10 March 1988. The Republic became a Party thereto by accession on 8 July 2005;
- (l) the International Convention for the Suppression of Acts of Nuclear Terrorism, adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on 13 April 2005. The Republic became a Party thereto by ratification on 9 May 2007;
- (m) the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material, adopted in Vienna on 26 October 1979. The Republic became a Party thereto by ratification on 17 September 2007; and
- (n) the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of nuclear weapons, adopted at New York on 12 June 1968. The Republic acceded thereto on 10 July 1991;

AND WHEREAS the Republic of South Africa desires to become a Party to the following remaining instruments of the United Nations, not yet ratified or acceded to by the Republic:

- (a) The Convention on the Suppression of Unlawful Acts Relating to International Civil Aviation, adopted at Beijing on 10 September 2010 and signed on behalf of the Republic on 26 September 2013; and
- (b) the Protocol Supplementary to the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft, adopted at Beijing on 10 September 2010, and signed on behalf of the Republic on 26 September 2013;
- (c)

AND WHEREAS the following international instruments have been adopted, but the Republic has not signed and is not a Party thereto:

- (a) The Protocol to Amend the Convention on Offences and Certain Other Acts Committed on Board Aircraft, adopted at Montreal on 4 April 2014;
- (b) the Amendment to the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material, adopted at Vienna on 8 July 2005;
- (c) the Protocol to the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Maritime Navigation, adopted at London on 14 October 2005; and
- (d) the Protocol to the Protocol for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts Against the Safety of Fixed Platforms Located on the Continental Shelf, adopted at London on 14 October 2005;

AND WHEREAS the Republic of South Africa has become a Party—

- (a) by ratification, on 7 November 2002, to the Convention on the Prevention and Combating of Terrorism, adopted by the Organisation of African Unity at Algiers on 14 July 1999; and
- (b) by ratification, on 25 March 2007, to the Protocol to the Organisation of African Unity Convention on the Prevention and Combating of Terrorism, adopted by the Assembly of the African Union at Addis Ababa on 8 July 2004;

AND WHEREAS the United Nations Security Council from time to time passes resolutions under Chapter VII of the United Nations Charter, requiring Member States to combat terrorist and related activities, including taking effective measures to prevent and combat the financing of terrorist and related activities, and the freezing of funds, assets or economic resources of persons who commit terrorist and related activities AND WHEREAS our national laws do not meet all the international requirements relating to the prevention and combating of terrorist and related activities;

AND WHEREAS international law, and in particular international humanitarian law, including the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations and the Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Cooperation among States in accordance with the said Charter recognizes acts committed in accordance with such international law during a struggle waged by peoples, including any action during an armed struggle, in the exercise or furtherance of their legitimate right to national liberation, self-determination and independence against colonialism, or occupation or aggression or domination by alien or foreign forces, as being excluded from terrorist activities;

AND REALISING the importance to enact appropriate domestic legislation necessary to implement the provisions of relevant international instruments dealing with terrorist and related activities, to ensure that the jurisdiction of the courts of the Republic of South Africa enables them to bring to trial the perpetrators of terrorist and related activities; and to cooperate with and provide support and assistance to other States and relevant international and regional organisations to that end;

AND MINDFUL that the Republic has, since 1994, become a legitimate member of the community of nations and is committed to bringing to justice persons who commit such terrorist and related activities; and to carrying out its obligations in terms of the international instruments dealing with terrorist and related activities.

 - (g) injures or kills a person, in connection with the commission of any of the acts set forth in paragraphs (a) to (f), is guilty of an offence relating to hijacking a ship or endangering the safety of maritime navigation.

- (2) For purposes of this section—
- (a) 'radioactive material' means radioactive material as defined in section 1 of the Nuclear Energy Act, and a Group IV hazardous substance as defined in section 1 of the Hazardous Substances Act;
 - (b) 'source material' means source material as defined in section 1 of the Nuclear Energy Act; and
 - (c) 'special nuclear material' means special nuclear material as defined in section 1 of the Nuclear Energy Act.
- (3) Any person who unlawfully and intentionally performs any of the following acts commits an offence:
- (a) Intimidating a population, or compelling a government or an international organisation, to do or to abstain from doing any act by—
 - (i) using against or on a ship, or discharges from a ship any explosive, radioactive material or weapon of mass destruction as defined in the Non-Proliferation of Weapons of Mass Destruction Act, or a hazardous substance referred to in section 2 of the Hazardous Substances Act, in a manner that causes or is likely to cause death or serious injury or damage;
 - (ii) discharging from a ship, oil, liquefied natural gas, or poisonous or noxious substance, in such quantity or concentration that causes or is likely to cause death or serious injury or damage;
 - (iii) using a ship in a manner that causes death or serious injury or damage;
 - (iv) threatening to commit an offence as contemplated in subparagraph (i) or (ii); or

- (v) using any other means to interfere with the safe navigation of a ship, including interference with the navigation or information system thereof; or
- (b) transporting on board a ship—
 - (i) any explosive or radioactive material, knowing that it is intended to be used to cause, or in a threat to cause death or serious injury or damage for the purpose of intimidating a population, or compelling a government or an international organisation to do or to abstain or refrain from doing any act;
 - (ii) any weapon of mass destruction, as defined in section 1 of the Non-Proliferation of Weapons of Mass Destruction Act, knowing it to be such a weapon;
 - (iii) any source material, special nuclear material, equipment, or material especially designed or prepared for the processing, use or production of special nuclear material, knowing that it is intended to be used in a nuclear explosive activity or in any other nuclear activity not under safeguards pursuant to an International Atomic Energy Agency comprehensive safeguards agreement; or
 - (iv) any equipment, materials, software or related technology that significantly contributes to the design, manufacture or delivery of a weapon of mass destruction, as defined in section 1 of the Non-Proliferation of Weapons of Mass Destruction Act, with the intention that it will be used for such purpose.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) it is not an offence to transport an item, material, software or related technology referred to in subsection (3)(b)(ii) or (iv), if such item, material, software or related technology is transported subject to control in accordance with section 13 of the Non-Proliferation of Weapons of Mass Destruction Act; and

- (b) it is not an offence to transport an item or material referred to in subsection (3)(b)(iii) or, insofar as it relates to a nuclear weapon or other nuclear explosive device, if such item or material is transported to or from the territory of, or is otherwise transported under the control of, a State Party to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons where—
- (i) the resulting transfer or receipt, including internal to a State, of the item or material is not contrary to the Republic's obligations under the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons; and
 - (ii) if the item or material is intended for the delivery system of a nuclear weapon or other nuclear explosive device of a State Party to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons and the holding of such weapon or device is not contrary to the Republic's obligations under that Treaty.
- (5) Any person who unlawfully and intentionally transports another person on board a ship knowing that the person has committed an act that constitutes an offence in terms of this section and intending to assist that person to evade criminal prosecution, is guilty of an offence.

PART 3

OTHER OFFENCES

11. Offences relating to harbouring or concealment of persons committing specified offences

Any person who harbours or conceals any person, whom he or she knows, or ought reasonably to have known or suspected, to be a person who has committed the offence of terrorism referred to in section 2, an offence associated or connected with terrorist activities referred to in section 3, any Convention offence, or an offence referred to in section 13 or 14, or who is likely to commit such an offence, is guilty of an offence.

12. Duty to report presence of person suspected of intending to commit or having committed offence and failure to so report

- (1) Any person who—
 - (a) has reason to suspect that any other person intends to commit or has committed an offence referred to in this Chapter; or
 - (b) is aware of the presence at any place of any other person who is so suspected of intending to commit or having committed such an offence, must report as soon as reasonably possible such suspicion or presence, as the case may be, or cause such suspicion or presence to be reported to any police official.
- (2) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) (a) or (b), is guilty of an offence.
- (3) Upon receipt of a report referred to in subsection (1), the police official involved, must take down the report in the manner directed by the National Commissioner, and forthwith provide the person who made the report with an acknowledgement of receipt of such report.
- (4)
 - (a) The National Commissioner must, at the commencement of this Act, publish the direction contemplated in subsection (3) in the Gazette.
 - (b) Any direction issued under subsection (3) must be tabled in Parliament.
- (5) A person required to make a report in terms of subsection (1) concerning a suspicion that any other person intends to commit or has committed an offence referred to in section 4, may continue with and carry out any transaction to which such a suspicion relates, unless directed in terms of subsection (6) not to proceed with such a transaction.
- (6) If a police official authorised thereto by the National Commissioner, after consulting with a person required to make a report contemplated in subsection (5), has reasonable grounds to suspect that a transaction referred to in that subsection may constitute an offence contemplated in section 4, that police official may direct that person, in writing, not to proceed with the carrying out of that transaction or any other transaction in respect of the property affected by that transaction for a period as may be determined by that police official, which may not be more than five days.

- (7) For the purposes of calculating the period of five days in subsection (6), Saturdays, Sundays and proclaimed public holidays must not be taken into account.
- (8) Subsection (6) does not apply to the carrying out of a transaction to which the rules of an exchange licensed in terms of the Stock Exchanges Control Act, 1985 (Act 1 of 1985), or the Financial Markets Control Act, 1989 (Act 55 of 1989), apply.
- (9) For the purposes of this Act, no duty of secrecy or confidentiality or any other restriction on the disclosure of information, whether imposed by legislation or arising from the common law or agreement, affects the duty of compliance with this section by an accountable institution, supervisory body or reporting institution as defined in section 1 of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, or any other person.
- (10) Subsection (9) does not apply to the common law right to legal professional privilege as between an attorney and the attorney's client in respect of communications made in confidence between—
 - (a) the attorney and the attorney's client for the purposes of legal advice or litigation which is pending or which has commenced; or
 - (b) a third party and an attorney for the purposes of litigation which is pending or has commenced.

13. Offences relating to hoaxes

- (1) (a) Any person who, with the intention of inducing in a person anywhere in the world a false belief that an offence under sections 2, 3 and 5 to 10 will be committed, is guilty of an offence.
- (b) Any person who, directly or indirectly, communicates any information, which he or she knows, or ought reasonably to have known or suspected, or believes to be false, with the intention of inducing in a person anywhere in the world a belief that a noxious substance or thing or an explosive or other lethal device is likely to be present (whether at the time the information is communicated or later) in or at any place, is guilty of an offence.

- (c) Any person who directly or indirectly communicates any information which he or she knows, or ought reasonably to have known or suspected, or believes to be false and which involves threats of violence or of any other offence that will be committed at any place with a view to intimidate any person to avoid certain places or to divert police resources in order to commit a crime under this Act, is guilty of an offence.
 - (d) If any police resources have been diverted as a result of a crime committed under paragraph (c), the offender is liable for any costs proven by the State in that regard.
 - (e) Upon conviction of an offence under paragraph (c), the court may order the accused, in addition to any fine or imprisonment imposed by the court, to pay the costs related to such diversion of resources.
- (2) For the purposes of this section “substance” includes any biological agent and any other natural or artificial substance (whatever its form, origin or method of production).

14. Threat, attempt, conspiracy and inducing another person to commit offence

Any person who—

- (a) threatens;
- (b) attempts;
- (c) conspires with any other person; or
- (d) aids, abets, induces, incites, instigates, instructs or commands, counsels or procures another person, to commit an offence in terms of this Chapter, is guilty of an offence.

CHAPTER 3

PROVISIONS RELATING TO OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

PART 1

PROVISIONS RELATING TO OFFENCES

15. Jurisdiction in respect of offences

- (1) A court of the Republic has jurisdiction and the Directorate may, upon information about the commission of any offence mentioned in this subsection, initiate an investigation, or the National Director may institute a prosecution in respect of the offence of terrorism referred to in section 2, an offence associated or connected with terrorist activities referred to in section 3, any Convention offence, or an offence referred to in section 13 or 14, if—
- (a) the accused was arrested in the territory of the Republic, or in its territorial waters or on board a ship or aircraft registered or required to be registered in the Republic; or
- (b) the offence was committed—
- (i) in the territory of the Republic;
 - (ii) on board a vessel, a ship, an off-shore installation, or a fixed platform, or an aircraft registered or required to be registered in the Republic at the time the offence was committed;
 - (iii) by a citizen of the Republic or a person ordinarily resident in the Republic;
 - (iv) against the Republic, a citizen of the Republic or a person ordinarily resident in the Republic;

- (v) on board an aircraft in respect of which the operator is licensed in terms of the Air Services Licensing Act, 1990 (Act 115 of 1990), or the International Air Services Act, 1993 (Act 60 of 1993);
 - (vi) against a government facility of the Republic abroad, including an embassy or other diplomatic or consular premises, or any other property of the Republic;
 - (vii) when during its commission, a national of the Republic is seized, threatened, injured or killed;
 - (viii) in an attempt to compel the Republic to do or to abstain or to refrain from doing any act; or
- (c) the evidence reveals any other basis recognised by law.
- (2) Any act alleged to constitute an offence under this Act and which is committed outside the Republic by a person other than a person contemplated in subsection (1), shall, regardless of whether or not the act constitutes an offence or not at the place of its commission, be deemed to have been committed also in the Republic if that—
- (a) act affects or is intended to affect a public body, any person or business in the Republic;
 - (b) person is found to be in the Republic; and
 - (c) person is for one or other reason not extradited by the Republic or if there is no application to extradite that person.
- (2A) Any person referred to in subsection (2) may be arrested to appear in court pending a determination on the issue of extradition.
- (3) Any offence committed in a country outside the Republic as contemplated in subsection (1) or (2), is, for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of a court to try the offence, deemed to have been committed—
- (a) at the place where the accused is ordinarily resident;
 - (b) at the accused person's principal place of business;
 - (c) at the place where the accused was arrested or charged in the Republic;
 - (d) at the place where the victim resided; or
 - (e) at the place where the police registered the complaint, whichever is the most applicable to the facts of the particular case.

- (3A) Where it is not possible to obtain a warrant of arrest for an accused on the grounds provided for in section 43(1)(b) of the Criminal Procedure Act, the magistrate of the district where the police registered the complaint may issue the warrant.
- (4) Where a person is charged with conspiracy or incitement to commit an offence or as an accessory after that offence, the offence is deemed to have been committed not only at the place where the act was committed, but also at every place where the conspirator, inciter or accessory acted or, in case of an omission, should have acted.
- (5) Whenever the National Commissioner receives information from an appropriate government body of a foreign State that a person who is alleged to have committed or is convicted of or is sentenced in respect of any Convention offence in respect of which—
- (a) a court in the Republic has jurisdiction as referred to in subsection (1); or
- (b) any court in a foreign State may have jurisdiction, may be present in the Republic, the National Commissioner must cause such measures to be taken as he or she may deem necessary to investigate the matter.
- (6) Where it appears on reasonable grounds from the investigation referred to in subsection (5) that extradition or criminal proceedings may be instituted against such person, that person may be arrested as contemplated in section 40(1) of the Criminal Procedure Act, in order to ensure his or her presence at such proceedings.
- (7) The National Director must, upon an arrest contemplated in subsection (6), promptly be notified thereof by the police official effecting such arrest.
- (8) Upon being notified in terms of subsection (7), the National Director must promptly notify any foreign State that might have jurisdiction over the offence in question, either directly or through the Secretary General of the United Nations—

- (a) of the fact that the person is in custody;
 - (b) of the circumstances that justify the person's detention; and
 - (c) whether he or she intends to prosecute the person, with a view to the surrender of such person to a foreign State for prosecution by that State, should the National Director decline to prosecute.
- (9) The provisions of this section must be exercised subject to the provisions of the Extradition Act, 1962 (Act 67 of 1962).
- (10) When a person who is—
- (a) not a citizen of the Republic;
 - (b) not habitually resident in the Republic; or
 - (c) a stateless person, is arrested by a member of the South African Police Service or the National Commissioner or the National Head of the Directorate for an alleged contravention of a Convention Offence, the Secretary-General of the United Nations or the government or governments with established jurisdiction must immediately be notified, through the diplomatic channel, of the arrest.

- (11) The National Commissioner or the National Head of the Directorate may consider to inform any other interested government about a person in custody and the circumstances which warranted that person's arrest.
- (12) A person referred to in subsection (10) must as soon as possible, upon arrest, be informed of his or her rights to—
- (a) request that the relevant government be informed of his or her arrest;
 - (b) have access to communicate with a consular representative of the relevant government; and
 - (c) expect that any communication addressed to the relevant consular post about the arrested person is forwarded by the relevant authorities without delay.

16. Consent of National Director to institute proceedings and reporting obligations

- (1) No prosecution under Chapter 2 may be instituted without the written authority of the National Director, except in the case of a prosecution under section 13 which is not linked to any other offence under this Act, in which case the written authority of the relevant Director of Public Prosecutions must be obtained before the institution of a prosecution.
- (2) The National Director must communicate the final outcome of the proceedings promptly to—
 - (a) the Secretary General of the United Nations, so that he or she may transmit the information to other members of the United Nations, if a person is prosecuted for an offence referred to in section 4, 5, 7 or 8;
 - (b) the Council of the International Civil Aviation Organization, if a person is prosecuted for an offence referred to in section 9; or
 - (c) the Secretary General of the International Maritime Organization, if a person is prosecuted for an offence referred to in section 6 or 10.

17. Evidential matters and exclusions

- (1) If in any proceedings in a court of law any question arises as to whether or not any person is an internationally protected person, or is pursuant to international law entitled to special protection from any attack on his or her person, freedom or dignity, a certificate under the hand or issued under the authority of the Director General of the Department responsible for International Relations and Cooperation, stating any fact relating to that question, is prima facie evidence of that fact.
- (2) A person commits an offence under section 2, 3, 4, 11, 12 (2) or 14 (in so far as it relates to the aforementioned sections), notwithstanding whether the terrorist activity occurs or not.
- (3) A person commits an offence under section 3, 4, 11 or 14 (in so far as it relates to the aforementioned sections), whether or not—
 - (a) the actions of the accused actually enhance the ability of any person to commit a specified offence; or
 - (b) the accused knows or ought reasonably to have known or suspected the specific offence that may be committed.

- (4) Nothing in section 4 makes it an offence to provide or collect funds intending that they be used, or knowing or while a person ought reasonably to have known or suspected that they are to be used, for the purpose of advocating democratic government or the protection of human rights.
- (5) If a person reports the presence of a person referred to in section 11, as soon as possible in accordance with section 12, he or she shall not be liable for prosecution, under section 11.
- (6) A person charged with committing an offence under section 4 may raise as a defence—
 - (a) the fact that he or she had performed any act in connection with the property in question, or allowed or facilitated the performance of any act in connection with that property, solely for the purpose of preserving the value of that property; or
 - (b) that he or she acted in good faith and reported his or her suspicion in accordance with section 12 of this Act, or section 29 of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 2001 (Act 38 of 2001), as the case may be.
- (7) No action, whether criminal or civil, lies against a person complying in good faith with section 12(1).
- (8) A person who has made, initiated or contributed to a report in terms of section 12(1) concerning a suspicion that any other person intends to commit or has committed an offence referred to in section 4 is competent, but not compellable, to give evidence in criminal proceedings arising from the report.
- (9) No evidence concerning the identity of a person who has made, initiated or contributed to a report in terms of section 12(1) concerning a suspicion that any other person intends to commit or has committed an offence referred to in section 4, is admissible as evidence in criminal proceedings unless that person testifies at those proceedings.
- (10) A person who acts reasonably in taking or omitting to take measures to comply with section 4 (2) shall not be liable in any civil action arising from having taken or omitted to have taken those measures, if the person proves that he or she took all reasonable steps to satisfy himself or herself that the relevant property was not owned, controlled or possessed by, or on behalf of or for the benefit of or at the direction of, an entity referred to in the said section 4 (2).

(11) A person is guilty of an offence under section 13(1)(a) or (b), whether or not he or she has any particular person in mind as the person in whom he or she intends to induce the belief in question.

PART 2

PENALTIES AND MATTERS RELATING TO PENALTIES

18. Penalties

- (1) Any person who is convicted of an offence referred to in—
 - (a) section 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 or 10 is liable—
 - (i) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by a High Court, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period up to imprisonment for life;
 - (ii) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by a regional court, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 18 years;
 - (iii) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by any magistrate's court, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years;
 - (b) section 3 or 11 is liable—
 - (i) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by a High Court or a regional court, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 15 years;
 - (ii) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by any magistrate's court, to any penalty which may lawfully be imposed by that court;
 - (c) section 4 or 4A, is liable—
 - (i) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by a High Court or a regional court, to a fine not exceeding R100 million or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 30 years;
 - (ii) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by any magistrate's court, to a fine not exceeding R250 000,00, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years;

- (d) section 13(1)(a), (b) or (c) is liable—
 - (i) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by a High Court or a regional court, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 15 years;
 - (ii) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by any magistrate's court, to any penalty which may lawfully be imposed by that court;
 - (e) section 12(2), is liable—
 - (i) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by a High Court or a regional court, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 15 years;
 - (ii) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by any magistrate's court, to any penalty which may lawfully be imposed by that court;
 - (f) section 14, is liable to the punishment laid down in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) for the offence which that person threatened, attempted or conspired to commit or aided, abetted, induced, instigated, instructed, commanded, counselled or procured another person to commit; and
 - (g) section 24A(10) or (11), is liable to a fine or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment.
- (2)(a) The court, in imposing a sentence on a person who has been convicted of an offence under section 13(1)(a) or (b), may order that person to reimburse any party incurring expenses incidental to any emergency or investigative response to that conduct, for those expenses.
- (b) A person ordered to make reimbursement under paragraph (a), shall be jointly and severally liable for such expenses with each other person, if any, who is ordered to make reimbursement under that paragraph for the same expenses.
 - (c) An order of reimbursement under paragraph (a), shall, for the purposes of enforcement, be treated as a civil judgment.

19. Declarations of forfeiture on conviction

- (1) Whenever any person is convicted of an offence under this Act, the court in passing sentence must, in addition to any punishment which that court may impose in respect of the offence, declare any property which is reasonably believed to have been used—
 - (a) in the commission of the offence; or
 - (b) for the purpose of or in connection with the commission of the offence, and which was seized under any power exercised under section 22, or is in the possession or custody or under the control of the convicted person, to be forfeited to the State.
- (2) The court which makes a declaration of forfeiture of property referred to in subsection (1), must order the registrar of the High Court concerned or clerk of the Magistrate's Court for the district concerned to forthwith publish such declaration calling upon interested parties through the media and by notice in the Gazette.
- (3) Anything forfeited under subsection (1) must, if it was seized under any power exercised under section 22, be kept or, if it is in the possession or custody or under the control of the convicted person, be seized and kept—
 - (a) for a period of 45 days after the date of the notice published in the Gazette; or
 - (b) if any person referred to in section 20(1) has, within the period contemplated in paragraph (a), made an application to the court concerned regarding his or her interest in such thing, until a final decision has been rendered in respect of any such application.

20. Interests of third parties

- (1) A declaration of forfeiture in terms of section 19(1) does not affect any interest, which any person other than the convicted person may have in the property in question, if the former person proves—

- (a) that he or she acquired the interest in that property in good faith and for consideration, whether in cash or otherwise; and
 - (b) that—
 - (i) the circumstances under which he or she acquired the interest in that property were not of such a nature that he or she knew or ought reasonably to have known or suspected that it was property used as contemplated in section 19(1); or
 - (ii) he or she could not prevent the use of that property as contemplated in that section.
- (2)(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1), the court concerned or, if the judge or judicial officer concerned is not available, any judge or judicial officer of that court, may at any time within a period of three years from the date of the declaration of forfeiture, on the application of any person, other than the convicted person, who claims that he or she has any interest in the property in question, inquire into and determine any such interest.
- (b) If a court referred to in paragraph (a) finds—
 - (i) that the property is wholly owned by the applicant, the court must set aside the declaration of forfeiture in question and direct that the property be returned to the applicant or, if the State has disposed of it, direct that the applicant be compensated by the State in an amount equal to the value of the property disposed of; or
 - (ii) that the applicant has an interest in the property—
 - (aa) the court must direct that the property be sold by public auction and that the applicant be paid out of the proceeds of the sale an amount equal to the value of his or her interest therein, but not exceeding the proceeds of the sale; or\
 - (bb) if the State has disposed of the property, the court must direct that the applicant be compensated by the State in an amount equal to the value of his or her interest therein.
- (3) Any person aggrieved by a determination made by the court under subsection (2), may appeal against the determination as if it were a conviction by the court making the determination, and such appeal may be heard either separately or jointly with an appeal against the conviction as a result of which the declaration of forfeiture was made, or against a sentence imposed as a result of such conviction.

21. Evidence in respect of declarations of forfeiture and certain interests

In order to make a declaration of forfeiture under section 19(1) or to determine any interest under section 20(2), the court may refer to the evidence and proceedings at the trial or hear such further evidence, either orally or by affidavit, as it may deem fit.

CHAPTER 4

INVESTIGATING POWERS AND FREEZING ORDERS

22. Investigating powers

- (1) Whenever the National Director has reason to believe that—
 - (a) any person may be in possession of information relevant to—
 - (i) the commission or intended commission of an alleged offence under Chapter 2; or
 - (ii) any property which—
 - (aa) may have been used in the commission, or for the purpose of or in connection with the commission, of an offence under this Act;
 - (bb) may have facilitated the commission of an offence under this Act, or enabled any entity to commit such an offence, or provided financial or economic support to an entity in the commission of such an offence; or
 - (cc) may afford evidence of the commission or intended commission of an offence referred to in subparagraph (i);
 - (b) there may be in any building, receptacle or place, or in the possession, custody or control of any entity any property referred to in paragraph (a)(ii); or
 - (c) any entity may be in possession, custody, or control of any documentary material relevant—
 - (i) to an alleged offence referred to in paragraph (a)(i); or
 - (ii) in respect of any property referred to in paragraph (a) (ii) or (b), he or she may, prior to the institution of any civil or criminal proceeding, under written authority direct that a Director of Public Prosecutions shall have, in respect of a specific investigation, the power to institute an investigation in terms of the provisions of Chapter 5 of the National Prosecuting Authority Act, 1998 (Act 32 of 1998), relating to the commission or intended commission of an alleged offence referred to in paragraph (a)(i) or any property contemplated in paragraph (a)(ii), or to any property referred to in paragraph (b), or to the possession, custody or control of any documentary material referred to in paragraph (c).

- (2) For purposes of subsection (1), a reference in the said Chapter 5 to—
- (a) the “head of the Directorate of Special Operations” or an “Investigating Director” shall be construed as a reference to a Director of Public Prosecutions authorized under subsection (1): Provided that for purposes of section 28 (2)(a) of the said Act, a Director of Public Prosecutions, may only designate a Deputy Director of Public Prosecutions;
- (b) a “special investigator” shall be construed as to include a “police official”.
- (3) If any property, contemplated in subsection (1)(a)(ii), seized under any power exercised under subsection (1), consists of cash or funds standing to the credit of a bank account, the Director of Public Prosecutions who has instituted the investigation under that subsection, shall cause the cash or funds to be paid into a banking account which shall be opened with any bank as defined in section 1 of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act 94 of 1990), and the Director of Public Prosecutions shall forthwith report to the Financial Intelligence Centre established in terms of section 2(1) of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 2001 (Act 38 of 2001), the fact of the seizure of the cash or funds and the opening of the account.

23. Freezing order

- (1) A High Court may, on ex parte application by the National Director to a judge in chambers, subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be specified in the order, make an order—
 - (a) prohibiting any person from engaging in any conduct, or dealing in any manner with any property owned or controlled by or on behalf of, or at the direction of, or otherwise associated with an entity referred to in subsection (2), and may include an order to freeze any such property;
 - (b) obliging any person to cease any conduct in respect of any property referred to in paragraph (a); or
 - (c) prohibiting any person from performing any act contemplated in section 4 for the benefit of, or on behalf of, or at the direction of, or under the control of, an entity referred to in subsection (2).
- (2) An order referred to in subsection (1) may be made in respect of—
 - (a) any entity, where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the entity has committed, or attempted to commit, participated in or facilitated the commission of a specified offence; or
 - (b) a specific entity identified in a notice pursuant to a Resolution of the United Nations Security Council relating to the identification of entities—
 - (i) that has committed, or attempted to commit, any terrorist and related activity, or participates in or facilitates the commission of any terrorist and related activity; or
 - (ii) against which Member States of the United Nations must take the actions specified in the Resolution in order to combat or prevent terrorist and related activities, and that are announced in a notice referred to in section 26A(3) of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act.

- (3) A High Court may make an interim order under subsection (1) pending its final determination of an application for such an order.
- (4) A High Court making an order under subsection (1) may make any other ancillary orders that the court considers appropriate for the proper, fair and effective execution of the order, including—
 - (a) appointing a curator bonis, subject to the directions of that High Court, to do any one or more of the following on behalf of a person affected by that order:
 - (i) To assume control over the property;
 - (ii) to take care of the said property;
 - (iii) to administer the said property and to perform any act necessary for that purpose;
 - (iv) where the said property is a business or undertaking, to carry on, with due regard to any law which may be applicable, the business or undertaking; and
 - (v) to dispose of property if it is not economically viable to administer it or for any other reason it is not economically possible to assume control and take care thereof;
 - (b) ordering any person holding property, subject to an order referred to in subsection (1), to immediately surrender any such property into the custody of the curator bonis; and
 - (c) relating to the payment of the fees and expenditure of the curator bonis.
- (5) The National Director must—

- (a) by publication in a national newspaper and the Gazette, give notice that an order under subsection (1) has been made; and
- (b) maintain on the website of the National Prosecuting Authority, a record of all orders made under subsection (1).
- (6) No action, whether criminal or civil, lies against any person complying in good faith with an order made under subsection (1).

24. Cordoning off, stop and search of vehicle, person and premises

- (1) If, on written request under oath to a judge in chambers by a police official of or above the rank of Brigadier, it appears to the judge that it is necessary in order to prevent any terrorist or related activity, the judge may issue a warrant for the cordoning off, and stopping and searching of vehicles, persons and premises, with a view to preventing such terrorist or related activity, in a specified area, and such warrant applies for the period specified therein, which period may not exceed 10 days.
- (2) Under a warrant obtained in terms of subsection (1), any police official who identifies himself or herself as such, may cordon off the specified area for the period specified in the warrant and stop and search any vehicle, person or premises in that area, for articles or things which could be used or have been used for or in connection with the preparation for or the commission or instigation of any terrorist or related activity.
- (3) The police official may seize any article or thing contemplated in subsection (2), and Chapter 2 of the Criminal Procedure Act applies with the necessary changes required by the context in respect of any such article or thing.
- (4) Section 29 of the Criminal Procedure Act applies in respect of the powers conferred upon police officials in terms of this section.
- (5) The provisions of this section shall not be construed as affecting the rights of any police official or law enforcement officer to use any other power in any other law in respect of cordoning off, search or seizure.

24A. Order to take-down or disable access to terrorism publications

- (1) A member of the Directorate, of or above the rank of Brigadier, may apply to a High Court, by way of an ex parte application to a judge in chambers, for the issuing of an order in terms of which an electronic communications service provider, whose electronic communications service is used to host a terrorism publication, is directed to take-down or disable access to such a publication.
- (2) An application referred to in subsection (1)—
 - (a) must be in writing;
 - (b) must—
 - (i) identify the applicant;
 - (ii) identify the electronic communications service provider to whom the order is to be addressed;
 - (iii) identify the electronic communications service of the electronic communications service provider that is used to host the terrorism publication;
 - (iv) be accompanied by an electronic copy of the terrorism publication;
 - (v) provide a description of the terrorism publication which must, where the publication in question is in the form of a speech, text, video or other visual representation, include a printed copy of the relevant content that will be relied upon to motivate that the publication is a terrorism publication;
 - (vi) indicate the reasons why the publication must be considered to be a terrorism publication; and
 - (vii) contain full particulars of all the facts and circumstances alleged in support of the application; and
 - (c) may be accompanied by—
 - (i) affidavits of persons who have knowledge of the matter concerned; or
 - (ii) other information relevant to the application.

- (3) The High Court must, as soon as reasonably possible, consider an application submitted to it in terms of subsection (1) and may, for that purpose, consider any such additional evidence it deems fit, including oral evidence or evidence by affidavit, which must form part of the record of proceedings.
- (4) If the High Court is satisfied that the electronic communications service of the electronic communications service provider is used to host terrorism publication, the court may, subject to such conditions as the court may deem fit to impose, issue the order applied for in terms of subsection (1).
- (5) An order issued under subsection (4) must—
 - (a) identify the electronic communications service provider to whom the order must be addressed;
 - (b) identify the applicant;
 - (c) identify and describe the terrorism publication;
 - (d) identify the electronic communications service of the electronic communications service provider that is used to host the terrorism publication;
 - (e) give reasons for the decision or finding of the court that the publication is a terrorism publication;
 - (f) order the electronic communications service provider to take-down or disable access to the terrorism publication within the period determined in the order from the date of service upon the electronic communications service provider; and
 - (g) specify any condition imposed by the court.
- (6)
 - (a) Except in a case where the High Court determines otherwise, an order under subsection (1) and a copy of the application contemplated in subsection (1) must be served upon an electronic communications service provider by a peace officer, as defined in section 1 of the Criminal Procedure Act, in accordance with the applicable rules of court.
 - (b) Where the High Court is satisfied that service cannot be effected in any manner referred to in paragraph (a), the court may make an order allowing service to be effected in a manner specified in such order.

- (7) An electronic communications service provider may, within 14 calendar days after the order has been served, apply to the relevant High Court for the setting aside or amendment of the order referred to in subsection (4).
- (8) The High Court must, as soon as is reasonably possible, consider an application submitted to it in terms of subsection (7) and may, for that purpose, consider such additional evidence as it deems fit, including oral evidence or evidence by affidavit, which shall form part of the record of the proceedings.
- (9) The High court may, for purposes of subsections (3) and (8), subpoena, or cause to be subpoenaed, any person as a witness at such proceedings, or to provide any book, document or object, if the evidence of that person, or book, document or object, appears to the court essential to the just decision of the case.
- (10) Any person who is subpoenaed in terms of subsection (9) to attend proceedings and who fails to—
 - (a) attend or to remain in attendance;
 - (b) appear at the place and on the date and at the time to which the proceedings in question may be adjourned;
 - (c) remain in attendance at those proceedings as so adjourned; or
 - (d) produce any book, document or object specified in the subpoena,is guilty of an offence.
- (11) Any electronic communications service provider who fails to comply with an order referred to in subsection (1), is guilty of an offence.
- (12) The provisions in respect of appeal and review as provided for in the Superior Courts Act, 2013 (Act No. 10 of 2013), apply to proceedings in terms of this section.
- (13) For purposes of this section—
 - (a) 'host a terrorism publication' means—
 - (i) to store a terrorism publication on the electronic communications network of an electronic communications service provider as part of providing an electronic communications service where it can be viewed, listened to, copied or downloaded; or

- (ii) to provide a link to the terrorism publication that has been stored on an electronic communication network of an electronic communications service provider, where it can be viewed, copied or downloaded;
- (b) 'take-down' means to delete or otherwise remove a terrorism publication stored on an electronic communications network; and
- (c) 'terrorism publication' means an electronic communication in the form of a speech, text, video or other visual representation that—
 - (i) threatens the public or segments of the public with the conduct in paragraph (a) of the definition of 'terrorist activity', or threatens the commission of an offence referred to in section 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 or 10; or
 - (ii) incites others to commit the offences referred to in subparagraph (i).

CHAPTER 5

RESOLUTION OF UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL

CHAPTER 6

GENERAL PROVISIONS

27. Amendment and repeal of laws and transitional provisions

- (1) The laws set out in the Schedule are hereby amended or repealed to the extent indicated in the fourth column of that Schedule.
- (1A) Any Proclamation issued under section 25(1), before the commencement of the Protection of Constitutional Democracy against Terrorist and Related Activities Amendment Act, 2022, remains valid and has the same force and effect as a notice referred to in section 26A(3) of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act.
- (1B) Any action taken in pursuance of a Proclamation issued under section 25(1), before the commencement of the Protection of Constitutional Democracy against Terrorist and Related Activities Amendment Act, 2022, remains valid.
- (2) All criminal proceedings which immediately prior to the commencement of this Act were instituted in terms of the provisions of the Internal Security Act, 1982 (Act 74 of 1982), and which proceedings have not been concluded before the commencement of this Act, shall be continued and concluded, in all respects as if this Act had not been passed.
- (3) An investigation, or prosecution or other legal proceedings, in respect of conduct which would have constituted an offence under the Internal Security Act, 1982, and which occurred after the commencement of that Act but before the commencement of this Act, may be conducted, instituted and continued as if this Act had not been passed.

- (4) Notwithstanding the repeal or amendment of any provision of any law by this Act, such provision shall, for the purpose of the disposal of any criminal proceedings, investigation, prosecution or legal proceedings contemplated in subsection (2) or (3) remain in force as if such provision had not been repealed or amended.

28. Short title and commencement

This Act is called the Protection of Constitutional Democracy against Terrorist and Related Activities Act, 2022, and shall come into operation on a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.
